Project Title: Bento

I would like to build this site as multiple pages, instead of a single long page that will include various information that introduces this topic. Bento is a Japanese iteration of a single-portion lunchbox that is usually homemade.

- Home Page / Introduction: Introduce basic points of what bento is.
- Etymology
- History
 - A basic history of how bento has evolved in Japanese history and how it is different or similar to those of near regions / countries.
- Culture
 - How the modern culture is different from that of the past.
- Types
 - By ingredients
 - By style or container
 - By where they are sold
 - Bento-related slangs
- Photo Gallery
